SWEEPING THE CROSSINGS.—A SMALL ARMY OF SWEEPERS.

The excessive amount of filth and slush accumulating in our streets, in many cases rendering the footways almost impassable, has developed a new branch of industry...

Hitherto we have been in the habit of keeping our streets so clean that no necessity existed for having anything of the kind amongst us...

It seems that some one mentioned the fact of such a thing being a paying business during the present reign of filth...

FOR THE EDUCATION

FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

Receptions of Messrs. Stanton and Colfax—John H. Surratt Hourly Expected.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.) WASHINGTON, January 25.

Secretary Stanton's Reception. The reception at Secretary Stanton's last night was a very brilliant affair.

Speaker Colfax's Reception. There was a large party also at Speaker Colfax's, which Senator Sumner's new bride attracted much attention by her beauty and the richness of her attire.

Surratt Hourly Expected. The United States vessel mistaken for the Surratt arriving at Annapolis with Surratt on board, proves to have been a Government tug.

Gen. Sheridan Coming to Washington. Major-General Sheridan has been ordered to report here, and is expected this week.

Business of the Senate. The work of the Senate is so much in arrears that it is probably that that body will soon commence to hold regular sessions.

The Gold Bill. The Gold bill was not disposed of by the Senate Finance Committee this morning, as expected.

Mr. Stevens Expected to Speak. The House is crowded again to-day, in anticipation of a speech from Mr. Stevens on his reconstruction measure.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. WASHINGTON, January 25.—Mr. Wilson (Mass.) presented the petition of the Adjutant-General of the State of Arkansas to the effect that that State furnished ten thousand troops to the Union army, and asking that the Secretary of the President be directed to reimburse the State for the cost of the troops.

Mr. Anthony (R. I.), from the Printing Committee, reported a resolution for the printing of three thousand copies of the Report of the President on the subject of the Paris Exhibition, with accompanying documents. Passed.

The Senate disagreed to the House amendment to the bill to incorporate the First Congregational Church of Washington.

Mr. Williams (Oregon), from the Finance Committee, reported a bill for the joint resolution giving an increase of compensation to certain civil employees of the Government, with an amendment striking out all the discrepancy in the proposed bill, and giving an increase of twenty per cent. to all civil employees at Washington whose salaries are less than $5000, without respect to any advancement they may have previously received.

Mr. Williams gave notice that he would call the resolution to-morrow.

Mr. Wilson (Mass.) gave notice that he would to-morrow introduce a bill to regulate, increase, and equalize the pay of army officers.

On motion of Mr. Wilson the bill to reorganize the central force of the War Department was recommended to the Committee on Military Affairs.

The Post Office Appropriation bill, from the House, was reported to the Finance Committee.

Messrs. Lane, Trumbull, and Buckwalter were appointed the Conference Committee on the part of the Senate on the discrepancy in the bill for the appointment of Pension Agents.

Mr. Trumbull (I.) called up the House bill amendatory to an act relating to the habeas corpus, and to request the individual proceedings in certain cases of an act relating to habeas corpus and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases, approved May 12, 1866.

The Ladies' Anti-Slavery Society.

Boston, January 25.—The Ladies' Anti-Slavery Subscription Society held its thirty-third anniversary last evening in Music Hall. There was a very large attendance. Wendell Phillips was among the speakers. He said, among other things, that the North must be kept up to the lively devotion and sacrifice which are manifested by the South. If the people are permitted to come down to the level where Henry Wilson stood, instead of being kept up where Messrs. Boutwell and Sumner live, a change of 5000 votes will elect Andrew Johnson, and Seward is politician enough to get them. We must get Johnson out of the way, not to punish him, but because we need his place to work from. President Johnson, he said, is a traitor, and the Supreme Court poisoned with disloyalty. The legislative branch of the Government must absorb the Government and save it.

Politics in New Hampshire. Concord, January 25.—General Harriman, Republican candidate for Governor, and John G. Sinclair, Democratic candidate for Governor, have arranged to stump the State together, commencing on Friday, February 8.

George C. Williams, who was committed to jail at Manchester for theft, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by throwing himself from the corridor to the pavement beneath. He was killed almost instantly.
